Providence, Nov. 6 -- On November 15, 1985 AS220 presents the premiere of Valorie Furlano's new performance piece A Latin Mass, featuring Tim Carney, John Macdermott, and Karen Reinker.

The work, a glorified multimedia extravaganza, deals with it's creator's love/hate relationship with the Roman Catholic Church. It focuses on a rebellious child and his psychotic mother. This domestic drama is surrounding and thus intensifying a performance of the original Latin Mass, a ritual that has been suppressed in this country for over 20 years.

On Saturday , November 16, court is in session with a hardcore show featuring Awaiting Trial. This re-appearance is stronger than its conviction.by genre.

AS220, the alternative space, is located on the third floor of the P.P.A.C. A coffeehouse, that opens at 8pm, and features its acts at 9pm - mid., is dedicated to the promotion and communication of the Arts to the R.I. community. Admission is $1, and with no intoxicants.
